

CCH Webinar: How to Develop and Retain Top Talent

This webinar will provide participants with a realistic approach that translates the theory of talent development into practices, strategies, and techniques that can be immediately applied to the development and retention of top performers. The session content will help you to understand the expectations of top talent and how the fulfillment of these expectations influence whether they stay or leave your organization. It will also present ten components of a successful talent development program and describe the link between engagement and the retention of top talent.

All paid registrants receive a FREE section of the Ultimate HR Manual, entitled "Design and Development of Training" published by CCH
